

Society

DOWSETT - NOTT WEDDING IS BRILLIANT AND BEAUTIFUL EVENT

Nott-Dowsett Wedding.

A WEDDING that was the center of attraction last night was that of Miss Laura Nott and Mr. Herbert Dowsett. The bride is one of the most popular girls in society and has a personal charm that has endeared her to numberless friends. She is enthusiastic and unaffected, with a rare grace of manner to add to her attractions. She has been a favorite with Honolulu society, and her wedding was the occasion for everyone to shower her with presents of great value and sincere good wishes. The wedding took place in St. Andrew's Cathedral, which was most exquisitely decorated for the occasion. St. Andrew's is always beautiful, but last night it surpassed in beauty of decoration and elegantly gowned women attending wedding ceremony taking place in this church. The altar was massed in beautiful Virgin lilies and asparagus. At each pew entrance was arranged a bouquet of Virgin lilies and pink a France roses tied with huge bows of pink chiffon ribbon. The bride and groom entered the church to the strains of the always beautiful Lohengrin wedding march. The matron of honor, Mrs. Dawson Warren, led the bride procession. She, like the bridesmaids, was gowned in a France rose pink champagne satin with lace coats of Valenciennes and exquisite picture hats of white lace, and conventional satin bows with dainty pink rosebuds in clusters. The matron of honor and bridesmaids carried dainty bouquets of tiny bride roses in pink and white. The bridesmaids were Miss Alice Cooke, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Muriel Howatt and Miss Alleen Dowsett. Mr. George Fuller supported the groom. Dr. Ferdinand Hedemann, Mr. Edmund Hedemann, Mr. Dickson Nott and Mr. Guilford Whitney were the ushers. The dainty bride came last, escorted by her mother, Mrs. George Sherman, who gave her into the keeping of her husband. The double ring service of the Episcopal church was used. Miss Nott was indeed a daintily sweet and radiant bride. Her gown was simply exquisite, not from point of trimming but from its quiet elegance and girlish simplicity. The creation of white meteor satin was simply made and trimmed in elegant Valenciennes lace and was finished with a long-pointed train. The bodice and sleeves of the gown were embellished in Valenciennes lace of exquisite design. The costume was completed with a long tulle veil and close-fitting wreath of orange blossoms. It has been years, if ever, since such a pretty wedding has taken place here. After the wedding service was completed the bride and groom, radiantly happy, left the church and the bridal party was soon in motors and away to the bride's home in upper Nuuanu, where the informal reception took place. None but relatives and the nearest and dearest friends were bidden to shower good wishes and felicitations on this happy couple. The home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman, was most exquisitely decorated for this occasion. The front lawn, where the reception was held, was the work of artistic hands and thought. The entrance above the stairway was banked in white lilies and ferns. The lawn, where the bride and groom received the loving wishes of their friends, was beautifully and artistically decorated in garlands and leis of plumaria which covered the ceiling of the lanai. In the corners were huge branches of fragrant and pretty white ginger. Bridal bells of white China asters hung over the heads of the bride and groom. On a tiny table near by were masses of dainty and pretty baskets of forage-me-nots. The lanai where the dancing took place was a conception in pink and green. Three hundred fragrant and dainty pink carnation leis and garlands of malle covered the space overhead; feathery bamboo was everywhere and added in no small way to enhance the beauty of this scene. A large lanai had been erected in the garden and steps leading from the house were canvas-covered to the lanai. Here at small tables the forty guests bidden enjoyed a delicious wedding supper. The bride party occupied the center table while the friends were around and about the table that was the center of attraction. The drawing room was done in pink and blue, dainty hydrangeas and pink roses being used. The library was done in pink roses while the dining hall was a symphony in green and gold. The blue room up stairs was dainty and sweet in blue and white floral decorations. The room where the gifts were displayed was massed in white and green. It would be utterly impossible to mention the gifts. Everything conceivable in dozens from the parents of the bride, was a magnificent chest of flat ware, three hundred pieces in all. From the parents of the groom a block of stock and so on down the entire list, silver, gold, china, cut glass, rock crystal, crasses, bronzes, teak, kono, clocks and statuary in an endless variety and quantity. The marriage of Miss Nott and Mr. Dowsett unites two of the oldest families in Honolulu; relatives and friends on both sides are legion. The sincere and best of good wishes of Honolulu is extended to this union. About five hundred invitations were issued for the church, which was filled with the friends of both parties. It will be many a day before such a remarkably pretty wedding takes place again in Honolulu.

Miss Ethel Whiting's Poi Luncheon.

Miss Ethel Whiting was hostess at an elegantly appointed and deliciously and daintily served poi luncheon on Friday. The Misses Hind were the motif for this gracious compliment. The table and house were massed in maidenhair ferns and gorgeous yellow, marigolds, the petals of this dainty flower being scattered over the table. The place cards were Harrison Fisher heads and were numbered, the duplicate numbers were put in a basket and the guests took a number from the basket and thus found their places at the table. It was a unique and pleasant diversion from the usual method. Mrs. Alexander Robertson and Mrs. Charles Hall favored the guests with several selections. Miss Whiting's guests were: Her Majesty Liliuokalani, Miss E. K. Hind, Miss Nina Hind, Miss Margaret Hind, Miss Maud Hind, Mrs. Alexander G. M. Robertson, Mrs. Carlos Long, Miss Beryl Jones, Miss A. Jones, Mrs. Curtis Laukae, Mrs. Edith Morton, Mrs. Hind of Berkeley, Mrs. Hind of Kohala, Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mrs. Antone Rosa, Mrs. Bennett, Miss Craig, Miss Starr, Miss Henrietta Smith, Miss Callie Lucas, Miss Agnes Buchanan, Miss Libby Peck, Miss Carol Low, Miss Laura Low, Miss Clarinda Low, Miss Emmeline Magoon, Miss Helen Colburn, Mrs. John Colburn, Jr., Mrs. Charles Hall, Miss Sibyl Robertson, Miss Ruth Johnston and Miss Marjory Preeth. At a late hour in the afternoon ices were served.

The Commencement Dance.

The graduates of Oahu College were hosts and hostesses at the annual commencement dance. This party is always the opening of the dancing and gaiety for the younger set in Honolulu and is always joyously anticipated. The hall was prettily decorated in festooning of malle and flowers while the walls were decorated with college and class pennants. The girls all wore new frocks, and boys, many of them wore their first tuxedo, so one can easily realize the importance of this function. A late car awaited the pleasure of the guests, and it was with regret that every one left the hall of gaiety and pleasure. Among those noticed were Miss

Mrs. Charles Wilder's Luncheon
Mrs. Harry Lewis's Bridge Party
Mr. Ernest Gay's Dinner
Low-Ruddell Wedding
Nott-Dowsett Wedding
Major and Mrs. Neville to Entertain
University Dance Next Week
Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright to Entertain
Dr. and Mrs. Morgan's Party
Mr. John Galt's Dinner
Angus-Ellis Nuptials
Mrs. William P. Wooten's Luncheon
The Wednesday Evening Bridge Club
Mr. and Mrs. George Davies' Dinner
Miss Kopke's Luncheon
McKinley Commencement Dance
Mrs. William G. Irwin's Luncheon
Mr. and Mrs. Buchy's Luncheon
Panahou Commencement Dance
Miss Margaret Center's Tea
Major and Mrs. John Wholley's Party
Mrs. J. W. Atkinson's Dinner
Mrs. Curtis' Afternoon Tea
Mr. and Mrs. Moore's Bridge Evening
Miss Dorothy Woods' Garden Party
Miss Thelma Murphy's Luncheon
Miss Ethel Whiting's Poi Luncheon
Margaret and Gaston Wall's Birthday Party
Miss Lucy Diamond's Lunch
Admiral and Mrs. Cowles' Dinner
Miss Harriet Young's Tea

Social
Calendar

Pischell, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Daphne Damon, Miss Marjorie Chapin, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Eloise Wichman, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Violet Shreve, Miss Muriel Howatt, Miss Ruth Woods, Miss Cordelia Gilman, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Culchon Hunter-Jones, Miss Beryl Hunter-Jones, Miss Helen McLain, Miss Carrie McLain, Miss Juliette Atwater, Miss Dora Atwater, Miss Margaret Forrest, Miss Margaret Center, Miss Louise McCarthy, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Virginia McCarthy, Miss Rosie Herbert, Miss Doras Hutchins, Miss Helen North, Miss Helen Brown, Miss Dorothy Grace Wood, Miss Eva Hind, Miss Marian Chapin, Miss Maud Hind, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Edith Baldwin, Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Frances Cochran, Miss Helen Colburn, Miss Alice Davis, Miss Leona Jewett, Miss Edith Kehalo, Miss Ruth Lindley, Miss Ruth Benton, Miss Bentrice White, Miss Esther White, Miss Marian Brown, Miss Hazel Gear, Miss Thelma Parker, Miss Aileen McGuire, Miss Myrie Schuman, Miss Margaret Hind, Miss Margaret Restarick, Miss Nina Hurd, Mr. Cyril Hoogs, Mr. Daniel Larson, Mr. Harold Gear, Mr. Jack Greene, Mr. Werne Timberlake, Mr. Theodore Cooke, Mr. Jack Galt, Mr. Carter Galt, Mr. Frederick Wichman, Mr. Donald Lewis, Mr. Dixon Nott, Mr. Henry White, Mr. Clarence White, Mr. William Ouderkerk, Mr. Bernard Damon, Mr. Sherman Ellis, Mr. Foote, Mr. Watson Hallentyne, Mr. William Schuman, Mr. William Harris, Mr. Robert McCoustan, Mr. Kenneth Ables, Mr. Gill Smart, Mr. Will Paty, Mr. Willie Morgan, Mr. John T. Moir, Jr., Mr. Harold Kerr, Mr. Lyle Holmes, Mr. Edwin Gibb, Mr. Fran-

and generous that she is beloved by all who know her. Captain Carter has won an enviable place in the good wishes of Honolulu. Mrs. Carter's mother, Mrs. Coleman, who has been her daughter's house guest, is a charming Southern woman and decidedly popular with all who have had the pleasure of meeting her. It is to be hoped that the Carters will wander this way again. Their going to Fortness Monroe is really like going home, as, off and on, they have been at that post for six years, so it is really like going home. The Carters leave here the first week in August.

Low-Ruddell Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Annabel Low and Mr. Albert Ruddell will be solemnized this evening at 8 o'clock at St. Andrew's Cathedral. Miss Carol Low will be her sister's maid of honor and Miss Laura Low and Miss Clarinda Low will be bridesmaids. Mr. Geo. Kinegel will support Mr. Ruddell. After the wedding ceremony the bridal party and family will go to the home of Hon. Judge and Mrs. DeLoon on Euana street, where the good wishes of the family will be showered upon this popular couple. Miss Low is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Low and is a sweet and winsome girl. Mr. Ruddell is a resident of Hilo and has been for some years, where he occupies a responsible position. Mr. Ruddell has prepared a beautiful home for his bride. Mr. Perry Deverill and Mr. Charles Stillman will act as ushers at the church. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Ruddell will go to the Peninsula for their honeymoon and on Wednesday they will leave for their home in Hilo. No invitations have been sent except verbal ones, but no doubt the church will be crowded. The best of good wishes will follow them to their island home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hitchcock's Dinner.

The Country Club was the setting for a very pretty dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hitchcock in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Silbey of California. The table was decorated in white asters and pink roses. The place cards were bits of Hawaiian scenery. Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Silbey, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Weight), Mr. and Mrs. Harry Von Hock, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong. Music was the pleasure of the guests after dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp's Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp were host and hostess at another of their delightful and informal dinners on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay were the guests of honor at the charming company of friends. Red was the color chosen for decoration. A large low basket was filled with white-colored carnations and maidenhair fern, while the handle was tied with a huge chiffon bow of emerald green, and the place cards were bits of island scenery. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Klamp were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay, the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Antone Cropp, Captain and Mrs. Sturgis, Mr. and Mrs. F. Prosser, General and Mrs. Macomb, Mr. and Mrs. Gertrude Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. A. M. Hanaberg, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. George Spalding, Miss Hughes, Miss Alice Cornet, Mr. George Fuller, Mr. Vaughn, Mr. Camponette, Signor Arana, Mr. George Torrey and Mr. Ernest Gay.

Admiral and Mrs. Cowles' Dinner. Admiral and Mrs. Cowles entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Cowles and Miss Cowles, who are relatives of Admiral Cowles and are visiting in Honolulu. Brown-eyed field daisies and feathery ferns formed the table decoration and was most effective. The place cards were the Hawaiian coat-of-arms. Admiral and Mrs. Cowles' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Cowles, Miss Cowles, Mr. and Mrs. Antone Cropp, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Haneberg, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mr. George Rodiek and Mr. John Hackfeld.

Mrs. Charles Wilder's Luncheon.

Mrs. Charles Wilder entertained at a charming and daintily appointed luncheon on Tuesday at her home on Third Street. Covers were laid for twelve. The hour after lunch was devoted to bridge. The table was exquisitely decorated with pink roses in a gilded basket and the handle was tied with a huge chin bow of pink melisse. The place cards were ivory lined with the hostess' monogram in gold lettering. Mrs. Wilder's guests were Mrs. M. M. Macomb, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Eleanor Hyde-Smith, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. Ramo Scott, Mrs. Clifton Carroll Carter, Mrs. Frederick Klamp, Mrs. Sturges, Mrs. M. M. Scott and Miss Marian Scott.

University Club Dance.

The University Club is going to give one of its always popular dances on Wednesday evening of next week. The club parties are always delightful and next week's party promises a jolly good time to the guests bidden.

(Continued on Page 14)

Showing of

GAGE and KNOX MILLINERY

Selected by Mrs. Milton

MILTON & PARSONS

Fort Street

Skilled and Careful Laundresses Handle the Apparel received by

The French Laundry,

and the sheerest garment is not injured.

Dry Cleaning of Men's and Women's Clothes by Abadie's French Method.

JOHN ABADIE,

777 King St.

Proprietor

Telephone 1491

IT HAS BEEN WELL SAID that the label of a well-known and responsible house is the best protection the public can have. Our name on the jewelry box stands for quality.

"IF IT'S FROM WICHMAN'S YOU KNOW IT'S GOOD"

H. F. WICHMAN & COMPANY, LTD.,

LEADING JEWELERS